

HERALD ELIMINATION OF TARIFF FROM THE NEXT GREAT CAMPAIGN.

Washingtonians, Who Look Far Ahead, Seem to Agree that the Issue Cannot Figure in Coming Presidential Contest Save as a Matter of Method, if at All, Rather Than as a Principle—The President in Control.

BY SUMNER CURTIS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, July 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] President Taft returned from his trip to the north yesterday, and the first thing he did was to issue a statement in which he said that he had given his friends and associates a capital something more to talk about. Now it is the Indianapolis press.

Presumably it would have been just as well for the reciprocity situation had President not felt compelled to dwell upon the subject in his speech. The substantial fact is that the die is cast, and that public sentiment has done its work and that Congress only awaits the President's word to renew the debate on the Canadian agreement.

Senator Cummins, continuing his speech when Congress resumed today, criticized the President's statement in Indianapolis severely. He was compensated for his criticism by the fact that the President's statement was an elaborate defense of the Canadian agreement by Senator Cummins.

A showing as will tend to influence sentiment in other States throughout the country. To a great extent, however, the returns from these States already have been discounted by the national managers and when North Dakota starts the procession on March 19, the Taft folks will be prepared for any happening.

DELEGATE CONVENTIONS. There is a strong possibility, moreover, that adverse action in some of the Presidential preference States will be anticipated by the President's managers and a counter-movement. This could be done through calling delegate conventions in some of the principal States ahead of the primary dates already fixed by law and it probably will be done.

THE NATIONAL LEAGUES mildly suggest the fear that forces in control of both parties may refuse to seat delegates elected and instructed directly by popular vote. In calling the 1908 national convention the Republican National Committee stretched its authority so as to permit delegates to be chosen according to any particular State laws that existed although the rules under which the committee acted, prescribed by the preceding national convention, specifically provides that delegates at-large should be chosen by popular vote.

While Riding Along the Alhambra Road a Tire Blows Out and the Machine Tumbles—Both Victims Rendered Unconscious and Helpless.

Yves Meadows of South Clarence street, and O. E. Brown of No. 8234 South Central avenue, were dangerously injured in an automobile accident early yesterday afternoon on the Alhambra road, just outside of the city limits.

Both men are employed as inspectors by the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation. They were returning to the city from a trip to Pasadena. Brown was driving the car, which was a light runabout. At a turn in the road a tire blew out and the auto turned turtle with both men under the machine.

JOY RIDERS

Land in Jail.

Belhops Take Automobile of Guest and He Prefers Charges.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) SANTA BARBARA, July 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Four joy riders, bell boys employed at a local hotel, came to grief this morning when they were arrested on a charge of driving away with another man's automobile without his permission.

A. C. Carpenter, who is registered at the Potter Hotel, left his car outside the hotel late last night. Later it was missing. The police were notified and after the car had been driven back to the hotel, the following were arrested: Harry Scott, Arthur Ralston, Dick Whitley and H. Harshberg.

Mr. Carpenter, who came here from St. Louis today, preferred charges against the quartet, and each was placed under $1000 bail. Unable to give it, they were jailed.

Federation of Women's Clubs in Olympia last week state that the proposal was discussed there and enthusiastically approved.

MAYOR IS IMMERSSED.

Chief Executive of Oregon Town Is Dipped in the Ocean Near Jump-off Joe Rock.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) NEWPORT (Or.) July 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The first immersion baptism service to be held here was witnessed today when George H. Willcox, Mayor of Newport, was baptized. The Rev. J. H. Douglas of Albany, Or., performed the ceremony, dipping the Mayor into the ocean on Nye Beach, near Jump-off Joe rock. A big crowd witnessed the ceremony.

The Baptists have no church here and have had no services here until lately. A recent effort to start a church of that denomination received enthusiastic support, particularly from the Mayor, and will probably result in the forming of a congregation.

CLIMBERS LOST

IN SNOWSTORM.

WASHINGTON MEN HAVE CLOSE CALL FROM DEATH.

Ignore Advice of Guides and Attempt to Reach Summit of Mt. Adams Monday, F. C. Howell, Hood River attorney, and Stanley Borenson, banker of Glenwood, became exhausted and wandered aimlessly about the mountain for hours, several times narrowly escaping death by falling into deep crevasses. They were finally rescued from their perilous situation by J. W. Pifer and John Vandye, two Hood River men who are veteran mountain climbers.

Howell and Borenson were members of a party of thirty which camped at the snow line Sunday night. On Monday morning a storm, which Alvin Kienhausen, the guide, declared was the most severe he had experienced, was raging. Despite the unfavorable conditions the party decided to make the attempt. At an elevation of 10,000 feet the party turned back, with the exception of Howell and Borenson, who insisted on going on, and became lost in the storm.

After waiting several hours Pifer and Vandye went in search and finally found Howell and Borenson. The latter could hardly keep his feet and was being assisted by Howell, whose condition was not much better. They had succeeded in getting within about 800 feet of the 12,500 foot elevation and then lost their way on the return trip, wandering about in circles.

The two men were assisted down to the point where the others were waiting, and revived there.

DEATH IN CALIFORNIA.

EVERY SIXTEEN MINUTES.

(A. P. NIGHT NEWS REPORT.) SACRAMENTO, July 5.—Interesting figures on the number of deaths occurring in California for the year 1910 have just been compiled by Statistician George Leslie of the State Board of Health office. In the year there were 32,988 deaths in the State and they occurred by months as follows: January, 2592; February, 2633; March, 2747; April, 2579; May, 2790; June, 2575; July, 2519; August, 2571; September, 2583; October, 2738; November, 2755; and December, 3012. The total represents a daily average of 93 deaths. The daily average of deaths was highest, 97, for the months of January and December, and lowest, 79, for September. From these figures it is estimated that a death occurs in California every 16 minutes.

FIND BODY IN RAVINE.

"ON CUFF BUTTONS."

(A. P. DAY NEWS REPORT.) SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—About 45 years of age and found in a ravine back of a roadhouse near Fairfax yesterday by C. Vignino of this city. A bullet hole was in the head and a revolver containing two empty shells was found at the side of the body. Apparently the man had been dead more than a month. Copies of a San Francisco paper of May 21 were found under the body. The man's clothes were of good texture. Two gold cuff buttons bore the engraved initial "L."

Banquet in San Francisco in Honor of Mrs. Young.

David Starr Jordan Will Deliver an Address.

(A. P. NIGHT NEWS REPORT.) SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—Several special trains arrived here today, bearing the advance of the 20,000 delegates to the National Education Association convention, which will open here next Friday night with a banquet in honor of Mrs. Ella Flagg Young of Chicago, president of the body.

Other trains will arrive during the next two days from points as far distant as Boston, Columbus, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Montreal, St. Louis and Chicago. The latter city alone contributes 1000 special trains. Special reserved cars will be dispatched from many other eastern, northern and southern points.

Mrs. Young is due here tomorrow. President David Starr Jordan of Stanford University is among those to speak at the banquet in her honor. The local Entertainment Committee passed a busy day at the railroad and ferry stations.

Many of the leading delegates will be entertained in private homes during their stay here.

President of Brotherhood Takes Occasion to Denounce Newspapers for Willingness to Destroy Good Name of Men—Churchman Believes Chicago Lumberman Honest.

(A. P. NIGHT NEWS REPORT.) PORTLAND, July 5.—The election of Senator William A. Lorimer figured today in the third annual convention of the Brotherhood of Disciples of Christ, an allied organization of the International convention of the Christian Church, which is in session here.

R. A. Long of Kansas City, in his address as president of the brotherhood, took occasion to reply to criticism of himself in an eastern church publication for his endorsement of Edward J. Hines of Chicago. Mr. Long asserted he had nothing for which to apologize.

Hines he said, was a friend of many years standing and when the charge of influencing the election of United States Senator Lorimer was made, Hines had come to him and assured him there was no truth in the charge and if money had been used, Hines had had no part either in securing contributions to any alleged fund or in disbursing it.

The speaker expressed his belief in Hines' innocence. In concluding his address he referred to the charge of influencing the election of United States Senator Lorimer was made, Hines had come to him and assured him there was no truth in the charge and if money had been used, Hines had had no part either in securing contributions to any alleged fund or in disbursing it.

Veritable Golconda of Ambergis.

VICTORIA (B. C.) July 5.—[By the A. P.] A piece of ambergris, said to be worth $150,000, was taken from a sperm whale, killed Saturday by the whaler Peterson, and arrived here yesterday. The ambergris is said to be one of the largest pieces ever found.

Seventy Poisoned by Lemonade.

AUBURN (Wash.) July 5.—[By the A. P.] Seventy persons are seriously ill and five may die, as the result of drinking infected lemonade yesterday at a picnic at Black Diamond. It is supposed that acids used in connecting the drink acted upon the zinc vessel from which it was served.

Three Injured, Two May Die.

SPOKANE (Wash.) July 5.—[By the A. P.] Two men were injured probably fatally and a third was badly hurt yesterday, at Malden, Wash., during a pony race in the main street of the town, a feature of the Fourth of July celebration. One rider lost control of his horse, which dashed into the crowd, injuring the trio. The rider escaped unhurt.

Will Try Mount McKinley Again.

SEATTLE (Wash.) July 5.—[By the A. P.] Prof. Herschel Parker of New York is noted for his efforts to climb Mount McKinley, and for his exposure of Dr. Frederick A. Cook, sailed for Valdez today on the steamer Admiral Sampson. While in Alaska, he will make arrangements for an expedition to ascend Mount McKinley next February.

Will Extend Power Lines.

REDDING (B. C.) July 5.—[By the A. P.] The filing here of a $2,000,000 mortgage by the Sacramento Valley Power Company of this city is said to forecast the extension of the company's power lines through the Sacramento Valley. The mortgage is made payable to the Anglo-California Trust Company of San Francisco. The power company now supplies electricity to Redding, Red Bluff, Chico and towns on the upper valley, but the lines will be extended further south to Marysville, Colusa, and even Sacramento.

WIFE AND CHILD GONE

Wallington Searches for Them in San Francisco and Urges That Quest Be Made in Other Cities.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) SACRAMENTO (Cal.) July 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] F. P. Wallington has just returned to his home at Leavenworth, Kan., after spending two days in San Francisco searching for his wife and child, who left their home nine days ago and have not been heard from since. Search is being prosecuted in several other cities at present.

Mrs. Wallington and baby bought passage on a steamer for San Francisco. Since then they have not been heard from. She expected to return in two days. Believing that she had either become lost, or committed suicide, the husband sent to San Francisco and employed a detective, who is now working on the case. There has been no word from the family and no reason is known for the woman to deliberately leave her home, according to Wallington. The child is a daughter nearly 4 years old. The husband and father is prostrated.

Officers in Sacramento, San Francisco and other places have been asked to watch for the missing ones.

MUSIC TEACHERS' WEEK.

HEAR PAPERS ON SYSTEMS.

(A. P. DAY NEWS REPORT.) SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—The first meeting of the Music Teachers' Association of California convened here today in a three-days' session with 150 delegates present from all parts of the State. President Louis H. Eaton of San Francisco opened the meeting, and Charles Farwell Edson of Los Angeles made the response. Papers on systems of teaching music to children were read by Miss Julia E. Bok, Miss Cora Jenkins, Miss Joy Noble and F. R. Robbins. The session ended with a song recital by Harry Clifford Lott, the Los Angeles baritone.

Divorces a Lieutenant.

Mrs. Wadsworth Legally Separated from Rene From Naval Officer Who Failed to Provide.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) RENO (Nev.) July 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After Mrs. Eugenia L. Wadsworth, who was formerly a Miss Cameron and member of the old New York family by that name, her testified before Judge Moran in the District Court this afternoon that her husband, Lieut. Alexander W. Wadsworth, member of the famous Wadsworth family of New York, had failed to support her and their infant son, Cameron Wadsworth, the woman was granted an absolute decree of divorce and the custody of the child.

Mrs. Wadsworth testified she had married Wadsworth in the Philippines in 1907 and, becoming ill some months later, came to the United States and went to her mother's home in Delaware. From there she went to live with a sister in Fort Snell, N. D. Her husband sent her money for living expenses for a short period and then the remittances ceased altogether. He was earning $250 a month in the navy according to her testimony. It is said that Mrs. Wadsworth was a newspaper woman in New York. It is also rumored in the divorce court that she will soon be led to the altar again.

The Bathing Suit is the popular Swim Easy styles. Made of good black materials, with square neck and short sleeves. Trimmed with red or white braid. The waist, skirt and bloomers are all in one piece, and the adjustable waist permits it to fit any figure perfectly. Choice of black or white shoes. Cap of plain rubber.

Read over carefully the above description and then stop and think of what a saving chance this is to buy all three of the necessary articles for swimming at the ridiculous price of $2.00. This is surely an item that will make Thursday a big day in the Bathing Suit Department!

Wife and Child Gone

Wallington Searches for Them in San Francisco and Urges That Quest Be Made in Other Cities.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) SACRAMENTO (Cal.) July 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] F. P. Wallington has just returned to his home at Leavenworth, Kan., after spending two days in San Francisco searching for his wife and child, who left their home nine days ago and have not been heard from since. Search is being prosecuted in several other cities at present.

Mrs. Wallington and baby bought passage on a steamer for San Francisco. Since then they have not been heard from. She expected to return in two days. Believing that she had either become lost, or committed suicide, the husband sent to San Francisco and employed a detective, who is now working on the case. There has been no word from the family and no reason is known for the woman to deliberately leave her home, according to Wallington. The child is a daughter nearly 4 years old. The husband and father is prostrated.

Officers in Sacramento, San Francisco and other places have been asked to watch for the missing ones.

MUSIC TEACHERS' WEEK.

HEAR PAPERS ON SYSTEMS.

(A. P. DAY NEWS REPORT.) SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—The first meeting of the Music Teachers' Association of California convened here today in a three-days' session with 150 delegates present from all parts of the State. President Louis H. Eaton of San Francisco opened the meeting, and Charles Farwell Edson of Los Angeles made the response. Papers on systems of teaching music to children were read by Miss Julia E. Bok, Miss Cora Jenkins, Miss Joy Noble and F. R. Robbins. The session ended with a song recital by Harry Clifford Lott, the Los Angeles baritone.

Veritable Golconda of Ambergis.

VICTORIA (B. C.) July 5.—[By the A. P.] A piece of ambergris, said to be worth $150,000, was taken from a sperm whale, killed Saturday by the whaler Peterson, and arrived here yesterday. The ambergris is said to be one of the largest pieces ever found.

Seventy Poisoned by Lemonade.

AUBURN (Wash.) July 5.—[By the A. P.] Seventy persons are seriously ill and five may die, as the result of drinking infected lemonade yesterday at a picnic at Black Diamond. It is supposed that acids used in connecting the drink acted upon the zinc vessel from which it was served.

Three Injured, Two May Die.

SPOKANE (Wash.) July 5.—[By the A. P.] Two men were injured probably fatally and a third was badly hurt yesterday, at Malden, Wash., during a pony race in the main street of the town, a feature of the Fourth of July celebration. One rider lost control of his horse, which dashed into the crowd, injuring the trio. The rider escaped unhurt.

Will Try Mount McKinley Again.

SEATTLE (Wash.) July 5.—[By the A. P.] Prof. Herschel Parker of New York is noted for his efforts to climb Mount McKinley, and for his exposure of Dr. Frederick A. Cook, sailed for Valdez today on the steamer Admiral Sampson. While in Alaska, he will make arrangements for an expedition to ascend Mount McKinley next February.

Will Extend Power Lines.

REDDING (B. C.) July 5.—[By the A. P.] The filing here of a $2,000,000 mortgage by the Sacramento Valley Power Company of this city is said to forecast the extension of the company's power lines through the Sacramento Valley. The mortgage is made payable to the Anglo-California Trust Company of San Francisco. The power company now supplies electricity to Redding, Red Bluff, Chico and towns on the upper valley, but the lines will be extended further south to Marysville, Colusa, and even Sacramento.

Passengers Split on Tale.

Some Indorse, Others Criticize Officers and Crew of Ill-fated Alaska Steamship Spokane.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) SEATTLE (Wash.) July 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Survivors from the wrecked steamer Spokane, particularly from the East, after they were safe on the beach, instead of being overcome with the spirit of thanksgiving at their rescue from imminent death, acted very much as if they expected the officers of the vessel to serve them with pink tea and chocolate eclairs, and a number of them were loud in their objections to the ship biscuits and condensed milk provided, in the face of the fact they would be taken away on board the Admiral Sampson in a few hours.

Such was the statement made this morning by T. J. Richardson of Pacific Grove, Cal., one of the rescued

CHICAGO DOCTOR
SENT TO JOLIET.

St. Louis Woman Fails to Save Him from Prison.

Mother of Wife Murderer Sees Him Depart.

Insists to the Last Conviction
Is an Injustice.

CHICAGO, July 5.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Dr. H. H. Clemenson, whom Mrs. Anna Schmitt of St. Louis attempted to clear of the charge of slay-ing his wife, was taken from the county jail shortly before noon today and placed on a train for the trip to the Joliet penitentiary.

Dr. Clemenson appeared to be cast down, and betrayed no hope of escaping from the penitentiary through a pardon or parole.

"I have been unjustly convicted, but I can see no way of avoiding punishment, and, therefore, am accepting my prison sentence with as good grace as possible," said the prisoner as he stepped out of the door of the jail in company with Jailer Davies.

The only visitor who called on the doctor during the day, before he was taken to the penitentiary, was his mother. She arrived only a short time before the appointed hour to leave the jail. She burst into tears.

"Don't cry, mother; don't cry," was the doctor's comforting words. "Everything will be all right. I will soon be out and be with you again."

Dr. Clemenson was convicted of slaying his wife, who was found dead from the effects of chloroform poisoning. At the time of her death he declared she had been killed by burglars, and that the house had been robbed of silverware and many trinkets by the robbers.

Some of this silverware, believed to have been stolen, was later discovered in the doctor's home. Dr. Clemenson later admitted hiding it. He said he thought his wife had committed suicide and that he had told the truth about the robbery.

Dr. Clemenson was taken to the Joliet penitentiary, where he will serve a term of ten years.

ARRAIGNMENT OF NEGROES.
Threaten White Woman of New Orleans With Death For Testifying in Assault Case.

NEW ORLEANS, July 5.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) That the "Council of God," of bloody memory here, had warned her not to testify and had threatened her with death and worse in case she did, was the statement made in court today by Mrs. E. L.
Morrell.

Her testimony caused many threats and resulted in the police taking steps to protect Mrs. Richard, a negro, who had been arrested for robbery, robbing her house, and setting fire to it.

Mrs. Morrell was attacked while giving a dinner party at her home.
She left the room upon hearing a noise and ran into the hall, where the assault followed. The "Council of God" was a set of negro lunatics charged with a series of murders and the most revolting crimes in the history of the South.

DANGEROUS SPORT.
Massachusetts Men Poke Fun at Wickham's Suit to Dissolve the Alleged Lumber Trust.

SPRINGFIELD (Mass.), July 5.—
Charles P. Chase and Ernest Newton Bagg, both of whom are named in the suit brought by the government against the alleged lumber trust, easily carried off the honors in the Fourth of July parade. The two men, wearing regulation prison uniforms and with their hair cropped, rode in a steel prison cell, barred and bolted, resting on a float, which was drawn by four horses. The float bore this inscription: "Local members of the alleged lumber trust getting free board."

Messrs. Chase and Bagg, sat on wooden stools. With perspiration rolling down their faces, they accompanied the parade with a palm leaf fan the continuous roar of applause that followed the passage of the float through the crowded streets.

Mr. Chase is president of the Springfield Board of Trade and also president of the largest lumber corporation in Springfield. He was for several years president of the Massachusetts Retail Dealers' Association, which is one of the defendants in Wickham's suit.

Mr. Bagg, who is secretary of the Massachusetts Dealers' Association, is named in the bill of complaint.

THEY STRAINED THEIR BULBS.
Ocean Going Torpedo Boat Destroyers of the British Navy Damaged by the Channel Currents.

LONDON, July 5.—Seven of Great Britain's newest ocean-going torpedo boat destroyers have been put out of action by overstraining their bulbs while under full speed trials in the heavy sea of the English channel. The destroyers Acorn, Alarm, Rifman, Tennis, Lys, Nymph, and Lark, each of which is a leaky condition, had all available divers employed in an attempt to plug the leaks, but the water poured in so fast that the boats were rendered useless.

Baby's Long Walk.
A professor of the University of Cambridge, who has greatly enriched himself to the students on account of his kind-heartedness, has an amusing tale to tell of a baby's wanderings. He visited his married sister a few days ago and had stayed in the young wife's room for the first time.

The gentleman felt that he must say something to give the impression that he was interested.

"Can the dear little fellow walk?" he inquired.

"Walk?" shouted the mother. "Why hasn't he been walking for five months?" Dear Mary exclaimed the professor, lapsing again into abstraction.
"That a long way he must have got!"

KEEN TO LEARN IN SUMMERTIME.

GIRLS AND BOYS FLOCK TO THE VACATION SCHOOLS.

Over Two Thousand Pupils Enroll, and Show Eagerness to Take Up Sloyd, Cooking, Gardening and Outdoor Training, as Well as Higher Branches of Education.

"The days when the laggard came reluctantly to his class in school are past," said E. J. Lickley, supervisor of the vacation schools, yesterday. "At least this is so in Los Angeles, which is proved by the fact that 2,157 students of the city schools joyfully registered their names on the vacation school enrollment today. These pupils of no pupil was solicited, every one rolling willingly and gladly."

"The Polytechnic High Summer School, of which Theodore Fulton is principal, enrolled 1750 pupils; the Castelar school, of which Mrs. E. H.
Smith is principal, enrolled 135 members, and the Macy-street school, which will be in charge of Miss Nora Sterry, enrolled 275 members, which probably will be increased to 400."

Lickley, who has had considerable experience in New York and other cities with vacation school work, says that he is amazed at the deluge of children which the children look upon the six weeks' term of study in the vacation time. He says that the boys at the Castelar and Macy-street schools wish to do sloyd work, and the girls wish to learn cooking, and that they will be taught these things, together with practical gardening and other manual training. These two schools are composed largely of the children of foreigners.

One little Russian boy yesterday naively inquired of Mrs. Smith if it would be necessary for him to leave the school at night, and incidentally asked if he might also take all his meals at the house of learning. He said that the money he had saved for him, a lot, and that he would be satisfied if he might be given a dinner and breakfast on the same order.

The work at the Polytechnic summer school will be given over mainly to the study of languages and other branches of the liberal arts. The students will also be given manual training, although manual training will also come in for a fair share of time.

The Y.W.C.A. summer school of physical education will be in charge of Henry Anderson, who formerly was in charge of the athletic department of Yale, and who also had charge of the athletics of the Cleveland public schools. Miss Bess Hair of Hamilton, O., has taken up her duties at the Huntington Park Clubhouse, where an entertainment in one of the local parks for the pupils of the Castelar school.

A Bad Witness.
A small Scottish boy was summoned to give evidence against his father, who was accused of making disturbance in the street. Said the magistrate to him:

"Come, my wee mon, speak the truth, and let us know all ye ken about this affair."

"Weel, sir," said the lad, "d'ye ken Inverness street?"

"I do, laddie," replied his worship.
"Weel, ye gang along it, and turn into the square, and cross the square."

"Yes, yes," said the judge encouragingly.

"An', when ye gang across the square, ye turn to the right, and up into High street, an' keep on up High street till ye come to a pump."

"Quite right, my lad; proceed," said his worship. "I know the old pump well."

"Weel," said the boy, with the most infantile simplicity, "ye may gang and pump it, for ye'll no pump me." [St.
Paul Dispatch.]

Capt. S. C. Rowe and Officer D. J. Williams of Oxnard have reported the present encampment in order to be relieved of duty imposed upon the officers of Oxnard here two days ago. At that time the two served as officers of the day of the 10th Regiment, but they were never relieved duty. As a result they have virtual no other officers of the day of the 10th Regiment during the last two years. Their duties have not been arduous but they have been worried about it.

Private W. C. Reiser of Helm Company No. 7 determined yesterday that he would not go to the front getting ready for the trip, some or appropriated his coat and he had given up the journey.

Fourteen returning New York holiday makers were hurt, four seriously, when their train from Rockaway bumped into the bulkheads at the Long Island City station yesterday afternoon. The train was traveling at a speed of ten miles an hour. The engineer had not applied the brakes in time and the passengers were piled in heaps in the front ends of the cars.

AT HIGHEST BAR.State Supreme Court to Pass on "Residence Districts."Many Houses and Much Money Involved in Test.Constitutionality of the City's Ordinance Is Attacked.After having passed successfully through the municipal offices, City Council, municipal and county courts, and to the highest tribunal in the State, the question of what is industrial district and what is residence district in Los Angeles, seems in a fair way to be settled. It is expected that the habeas corpus proceedings attacking the constitutionality of the so-called "residence-district ordinance" will be passed upon by the California Supreme Court today and that the legal status of the statute will be then settled once for all.The case immediately involved is of comparatively slight importance, but involves a ruling of great significance to the present and future layout of the city, chiefly, however, the former. Under the present order of things, approximately 500 business and industrial concerns are directly affected by the possible interpretation of the ordinance and the cash value of property affected is an item of great importance.The decision turns upon the applicability of the statute to places of business which were in operation prior to and at the time of its passage. It is the contention of the persons affected that in this respect the ordinance is ex post facto, and cannot be made legally effective upon them.The statement was made yesterday by an attorney for one of the larger concerns involved that a great amount of business is hanging fire pending the receipt of the Supreme Court's decision. He declared that many business men are waiting to suspend operations on account of leaves existing in the so-named residence district and that they are unwilling to renew them until the status of such districts is definitely settled.
The position taken by them," he said, "is not necessarily one of an-tagonism to the ordinance as that of wanting to know exactly where they stand in the matter. In the event of adverse decision from the Supreme Court, however, very considerable losses will be entailed upon them.
Where it does not mean the killing of the business entirely it necessitates a removal of equipment, offices, machinery, etc., and in some instances to very disadvantageous sites."The habeas corpus action is that applied for by the attorneys of a Chinese laundryman, Quong Wo, who formerly ran a laundry at No. 725 South Flower street, which is in the limits of the residence district as defined by the ordinance. Quong was one of a number arrested on charges of violation of the ordinance, and his case was selected by his countrymen for purposes of testing constitutionality. The laundries are among those who were immediately affected, by reason of the nature of their business.Quong was fined and a sentence in the County Jail was an accompanying punishment. The habeas corpus proceedings for his release reached the Supreme Court some days ago, but Quong is still in jail.
Illegal arrest is the basis of the argument for his release. It is claimed that the ordinance arbitrarily created a residence district about his place of business after its establishment, and after the accumulation of property rights by him. It is further claimed that the business of washing clothes is a necessary, harmless, and not a nuisance, nor "dangerous to the health, morals, safety or comfort of the people." It is contended on the part of the city that the ordinance is well within the police powers of the municipality, and that the city has the right to designate districts or territory in which certain lines of business may be conducted.In view of the importance of the decision to follow, the case has been given the right of way through the courts, and has been held up to records in reaching the State's highest tribunal.

SILK CAPS FOR TRAINMEN.

Twenty-five Hundred Employees of the Pacific Electric to Have More Attractive Uniforms.With an established reputation as the best built and best equipped industrial trolley system in the world, the Pacific Electric proposes to add new laurels. The programme providing for the painting of the cars of the

with the standard color on the Pacific Electric is nearly completed.
With all of the cars of the allied lines a uniform color, the next move is a standard uniform for the train-men. In this connection an order was issued yesterday in place of the white caps now in use the caps will be black silk and coats will be single breasted, blue service jackets and dusters and motormen will have gilt buttons and ornaments.The change affects 2500 men including employees of the Pacific Electric, Los Angeles Pacific, Los Angeles and Redondo, San Bernardino Valley Traction, Redondo Central, Riverside & Arlington, Pomona, Pasadena and Long Beach city lines, who will all wear the same uniforms. The motor-men's badge numbers will be added and the conductors'—even 1 to 1000 on the northern division, to 2000 on the western division, to 3000 on the San Bernardino Valley Traction, and 3100 to 3200 on the Riverside

REALTY MAN ACCUSED.

Charged With Having Committed Embezzlement by Appropriation of Note Intrusted to Him.Ira H. Stubbs, a Los Angeles real estate dealer, was arrested yesterday for embezzlement by appropriation of a note intrusted to him by Justice Young on a charge of embezzlement, preferred by James E. Wickham.The latter complained recently to Deputy District Attorney Richardson that he had intrusted a note for $600 to Stubbs, who was to act as bailie, but that the man had appropriated the note to himself.Stubbs was recently released on bail, following his arraignment on a charge of forging a deed to property valued at $2000. Justice Young yesterday set his examination on the second count for the 26th inst., and released him on $5000 bond.

SAILING AWAY?Pacific Electric Clerk and Money Disappear.Both Believed to Be on Ship Bound for North.May Be Taken in Bay City
This Morning.Acting either on a deliberate plan or giving way to a momentary impulse when sold was the temptation, Ray Duncan, operator and clerk for the Pacific Electric Railway in San Pedro, is charged with having cleared the safe of the Fourth of July revenue of the company. He disappeared early yesterday morning, not many hours after the money was missed, and is believed to be on the teamship Roanoke, bound for San Francisco, and due there at 7 o'clock this morning.Reports vary as to the amount of money taken, and it is not certain that the actual figures are known. It was hinted in San Pedro last night that it may be as high as $2000, but officials of the Pacific Electric in the main office stated it to be exactly $421.

ANOTHER IMPLICATED.

Duncan was subordinate to William Johnson, San Pedro agent for the trolley company, and it was part of his routine of duty to receive the money turned in by conductors operating between Los Angeles and the harbor, and deposit it in the office safe. Perhaps the unusual fun of business Tuesday tempted Duncan, who has hitherto borne a good reputation for steadiness and trustworthiness. At least the money is gone and so is Duncan. The police are also looking for Frank Falk, a young man about the age of Duncan, who has not so good a record.Duncan and Falk were seen on the wharf of the North Pacific Steamship company just before the departure of the Roanoke of that line for San Pedro and Portland. The Roanoke was due to leave San Pedro at 6 o'clock yesterday night, but was delayed and did not get away until 1 o'clock yesterday morning.It was stated last night at San Pedro that a warrant will be issued today from the District Attorney's office charging Duncan with embezzlement. Meanwhile the police at San Francisco have been asked to search the Roanoke upon her arrival at that port, and to hold Duncan if found. The Roanoke does not stop between San Pedro and San Francisco, so he cannot escape if he sailed on that vessel.Duncan is 22 years old, unmarried, and is the son of W. B. Duncan, who has been long in the employ of the Southern Pacific, and is now station agent for that company at San Pedro.
Young Duncan has held several railroad positions and has been in the employ of the Pacific Electric at San Pedro for about a year. He was bonded with the Pacific Surety Company.

COLUMBIA BOYS COMING.

Youthful Hikers Are Now on Eleventh Annual Trek, and Will Be Here Next Monday.Next Monday the Columbia Park Boys' Club of San Francisco, forty-four of whose members are on an annual hike from their native city, will arrive at Luna Park, having been on foot since June 2. This organization is composed of juveniles whose ages are from 10 to 16 years. The boys who are to invade Los Angeles are organized in a brass band and drum and bugle corps under the direction of Maj. Eustace M. Pelototto.
The Columbia Park Boys' Club has been called "the greatest boys' organization in America, if not in a wider sphere." Its members are typical city boys, such as are found on the streets of any large municipality. With its military bands, military companies, drum and bugle corps, gymnastics, dramatic and choral achievements, summer camps and traveling tours, the club has set a new standard for the education of boys.For eleven years forty-old members of the organization have taken an annual 500-mile walk through California, supporting themselves by giving musical and dramatic entertainments. They have also visited Australia, Europe and other foreign countries, and have been receiving ovations in these far-away lands.POISONED FRUIT no harm to look into the matter from pital for some time.At that time his wife sought and obtained his release, and as a formerly worked for him, I am certain that he never was in any asylum," he

A POINTER.
"See America First" is the title of a lecture given in this city within the past week. It is said to be approved by the solid vote of the Yellowstone guides, Pullman porters, bellhops, roller-chair men, etc.

JOB FOR BURBANK.
Luther Burbank, the seed and plant wizard, is now trying to perfect the seedling watermelon. He thinks he will succeed. That accomplished, he will employ his skill in building a noiseless phonograph. We don't know about that.

HAVE BEEN BUSY.
The sea serpent ought to be putting in an appearance almost any day now along the Pacific Coast. His snakebait was busy for quite a while scaring the Mexican instructors, but the war now over, he may move slowly up to Long Beach, Ocean Park, Venice and Santa Monica.

HARD ON TEXAS.
It is reported that "Dock" Cook will move to Texas and make that State his future home. "Dock" probably figures that, if Joe Bailey can live there and get away with his bluff, there is a chance for him. But Bailey and Cook will sorely try the patience of the Texans. They cannot stand everything.

OUR POETS.
A Los Angeles woman says that she hangs her head in shame because there are no more poets in the country, and especially in the West. It is quite evident she does not read the papers that teem with the efforts of would-be geniuses. Right here at home there are poets of purest ray serene. They admit of self-improvement.

SHORT PRAYERS.
A clergyman opened the session of the New York Seminary recently with a prayer sixteen minutes long by the clock. It is impossible to tell what the good Lord thought of the effort, but it is not hard to guess how it affected the solons. And yet we hear of a falling away in church attendance and interest. It might be worth while to look into the matter to see if long, prosy sermons and prayers do not have something to do with it.

AS TO TAFT.
A rational progressive in this country than President Taft. His administration has stood for the honorable discharge of duty in office as a public trust and its accomplishments are steadily gaining a fuller measure of recognition. He has practiced no art of political contrivance, but any conceit of rivalry is discouraged by the impossibility of counting his hold on the sober thought and esteem of the people. No contentant can have the advantage of such undeniable proof of fidelity and capacity.

A PIOUS TOWN.
Religion reigns at Baldwin, Kan. The hotel will not keep cigars. The banks are opened with prayer. Texts of scripture adorn the walls of the barber shops, saloons exist not, and no unregenerated man can hire a livery team. All projected public improvements are referred to a civic society called the Methodist Brotherhood, and not a sewer or a sidewalk can be laid without first securing their approval. Baldwin is the home of superannuated preachers. Not a cuss word has been spoken in its streets since last winter, when a stray tourist was fined for mentioning that he had visited the Roosevelt dam.

TROUBLES OF A BATTLESHIP.
Hayti has a battleship such as it is. It is purchased of the Italian government. In order to make sure of their pay, the German officers and crew who had been employed to conduct the vessel from Hamburg to Port au Prince took on board a cargo of cattle, to be delivered at an intermediate port. The ship arrived at Port au Prince looking badly and with her plates peeling. The Germans were discharged and a black captain and crew took their places. Then the trouble commenced. The new captain was something of a sailor, for he had commanded a harbor tug boat. But the chief engineer was by profession a barkeeper, and the first officer was an ex-street car conductor. These officers managed to walk across the deck without holding on to anything and they prepared to receive in state President Simon of the Haytian republic, after whom the vessel was named. His excellency arrived on board accompanied by his staff. Some members of his suite appeared sans culottes, but the President-to his credit he said—had on a pair of pantaloons. When he concluded to go below or, as he stated it, to "go downstairs" to inspect the ship, the chief engineer informed him that there was no "juice" in the electric wires. But, with the aid of a kerosene lamp, the inspection was made.

The ministers accompanying President Simon informed the captain that official etiquette required a salute of twenty-one guns. After a hunt by the crew the forward battery of one-inch guns was located and then the discovery was made that there was no powder. The discharged German officers and crew had used up all the powder of the Haytian navy shooting wild ducks at the port where the cattle had been discharged. The population of Port au Prince were congregated on the wharves, waiting to hear the thunders of the new navy. But the navy thundered not, and the dignitaries of Hayti went ashore amid a deafening silence, such as prevailed in the thoroughfares of Los Angeles during our safe and sane Fourth of July.

EXPORT TAXES.
The statement which occasionally propose to amend the Constitution of the United States might do well to consider the advisability of offering an amendment to rescind so much of Section 9 of Article I as provides that "No tax or duty shall be laid on articles exported from any State." Such a constitutional amendment would make it possible for Congress to provide a source of Federal revenue which would practically be collected from Europe by levying an export duty on cotton. We export in round numbers 5,000,000 pounds of cotton, the farm value of which is about $300,000,000. An export duty of 4 cents per pound would bring $200,000,000 annually into the Federal treasury and would probably not lessen by one dime the price received for cotton by those who grow it, for nowhere else in the world can there be produced the same quality of cotton as that which is raised in the Gulf States. The looms of Europe must have it at whatever price. It will be remembered that at one time during the Civil War more than 50 cents per pound was paid in Manchester for American cotton. An export duty on cotton would also be likely to stimulate cotton manufactures in this country, for an export duty would be levied only on raw cotton, and not on cotton cloth or cotton yarn.

Brazil has demonstrated what can be done by a nation which possesses a monopoly of production of an article of universal use in the way of taxing the people of other nations. Brazil is the largest producer of coffee in the world, and the people of the United States are the largest consumers of coffee in the world. By means of an export duty on coffee Brazil has increased the wholesale price of that article 100 per cent. in two years. In December, 1908, the price of coffee was 6½ cents per pound. In December, 1910, it was 12½ cents per pound. Our net imports of coffee amount to 130,000,000 pounds per annum, and our people pay Brazilian about $3,000,000 per annum more for coffee than they did two years ago. Brazil is preparing to make further exactions. She has engaged to prevent the planting of more coffee trees and has approved, but has not yet enacted, a proposition to burn one-tenth of the coffee crop every year. There is also a scheme on foot for the government of Brazil to guarantee a bond issue of $75,000,000, the proceeds to be used in buying up the coffee crop and holding it for higher prices.

The broadening demand for coffee all over the world has more than kept pace with its increased production outside of Brazil. Brazil is preparing to apply the same method to rubber, of which she produces 50 per cent. of all that is produced in the world. Of coffee she furnishes 85 per cent. of the world's production. She may not be able to levy upon the owners of autos an increased tribute for rubber, for that article is being produced in considerable quantities from a weed grown on the deserts of Mexico, and a substitute of rubber may at any time be discovered.

But there is no substitute for coffee. The world has vainly been explored for localities where it can be profitably cultivated, and Brazil has a monopoly of which she cannot be easily deprived.

THE HIGHWAY COMMISSION.
The Supervisors have appointed Hon. Thomas Earley of Pasadena, D. K. Edwards of Los Angeles and W. A. Gillette of South Pasadena members of the Los Angeles County Highway Commission. We believe this will make a good board. From personal knowledge the Times can speak with assurance of the qualifications of Messrs. Earley and Edwards, for it has seen them tried out. Ex-Mayor Earley is one of the fathers of the good roads movement in this county and to no man does the impetus which it has acquired owe more. He has labored for it and slept with it in season and out of season. Moreover, he knows what should be done and how to do it. Mr. Edwards won distinction in the service of the city on the Public Works Board. His work on our city streets was exceedingly meritorious. The Times is pleased to see the promotion of our magnificent county roads system placed in such capable hands and wishes an agreeable and very busy term of office to these three gentlemen. It is sure that they will all times to be above the suspicion of doing politics or unduly economics. The prospects for better roads and more of them are bright.

A $400,000 DIAMOND.
There is an exodus of monarchs from their thrones. First King Manuel shook the dust of Portugal from his feet. The shadow of Swat left the grove of his beloved Swat behind him and sought succor of sorrow amid the gay delights of Paris. And now the Gaekwar of Baroda is living in London. His Gaekwarship did not depart from Baroda of his own free will. He was compelled to leave because he attempted to administer a dose of powdered glass to Col. Playfair, the British resident there. The British government could not overlook this effort to retire from the scene of human activities a gentleman who was described by the Gaekwar as "a supercilious and obnoxious Englishman." But it would have been inexpedient to lock the Gaekwar in the county jail at Baroda, so he was banished to London. He took his royal treasury with him, and there must have been many shekels in it, for, shortly after his arrival, he paid $400,000 for "the Star of the South." This celebrated gem was not, as might be erroneously supposed, named after Jos. Bailey or that other distinguished Texan, Billy Boy, although it has many points of resemblance to both of them. The Star of the South is a dodecahedron, having, like Bryan, twelve different faces, and, like Bailey, having solid and unchangeable pentagons under its surface. It further resembles Bryan in that it weighs only half as much as it did before the election lapidaries cut it down. The difference between the diamond and Bryan is that cutting down improved the brilliancy of the former, while it reduced that of the latter to the dimensions and the smell of a snuffed candle wick.

The Star of the South weighs—cut—125

carats. It is one of the largest diamonds ever found in Brazil. It was shown at the London exhibition in 1862 and the Paris exhibition in 1887. It has been owned by a syndicate which paid $240,000 for it and which once refused $500,000 that was offered for it forty years ago by an Indian rajah. The syndicate held it for $1,000,000, but royal diamond buyers have been scarce since the Franco-Prussian war, and John P. Morgan did not then have the necessary cash. Rockefeller is investing in Brazilian colonies, rather than diamonds. So the syndicate placed the gem on the bargain counter marked down to $400,000, at which price the Gaekwar took it in.

KIND WORDS FOR BILLY BOY.
A party named Murphy rushes, in the Chicago Tribune, into defense and eulogy of Bryan. Murphy claims that Billy Boy is the only man in this degenerate generation who possesses "political honor and private honesty;" that "he cannot be tempted or tainted, though often betrayed;" that "he cannot be bought by the people's enemies, though often sold out by his Judas friends;" that "his worth, capacity and integrity, his career, record and character now appeal to his countrymen without regard to party or creed."

These eulogies are merited, why did this combination of the Angel Gabriel, Memphis, George Washington, Saint Aloysius, Hiram, the First and Tom Taggart move from Nebraska to Texas? Why did he leave the corn fields green and honest tillers of the soil in beautiful Nebraska to wrestle with Joe Bailey for supremacy amid the howling bullocks and profane cowboys of Texas? That "private honesty" has ever almost ever been his rule of conduct is evidenced by his action in the noted will case. That "political honor" has always abided with him is demonstrated by his speeches in his last campaign but one, when he told the miners of Colorado to vote for Bryan and free-silver coinage so that their silver dollars would buy more flour, and the next week told the farmers of Iowa that if they voted for him they could sell their flour for more silver dollars. Did he not prove his "honesty, capacity and integrity" when, from Madison Square Garden to New Orleans, he sang—

"Flippity flop goes the crown of my hat,
And so does the sole of my shoe;
I'm a man without guile, just watch me while I paddle my own canoe."

Everybody wants the peerless one for a fourth-term Democratic candidate. The Democrats want him because the spellbinders can utilize their ancient speeches in the canvass. The Republicans want him because he is the easiest man to beat in all the land, and he wants himself, oh, how he wants himself.

BREAK LAWS.
The laws enacted by the late Illinois Legislature were not all jack-pot laws. They embraced some salutary social reforms, and some that are not so salutary. Common cups at public functions are to be banished and thirty denizens of Chicago will either be compelled to carry private tumblers in their hip pockets or quench their thirst at soda fountains or at bars where liquid damnation is sold. No objection is made to the repeated use by different imbibers of drinking vessels at saloons without any previous sterilization or cleansing of the same. It is conceded that the disease microbes which inhabit the lips of the casual drinker can only be transmitted if he drips water. The microbes dies when touched by the life-giving whisky cocktail, and the saloon bars will be patronized for "Honor, Wealth and Fame may desert us. Thrift is eternal." The members of the Legislature neglected to guard their equine friends and their burro kindred from glanders by prohibiting public drinking fountains for horses and donkeys. They likewise ignored the danger of contaminating osculation, for no law was enacted against kissing.

Indeed, the solons retrograded in sanitary law providing that all dunning institutions of tuberculosis testing of cattle.

One of the queer statutes enacted was a law providing that all dunning institutions shall be taken over by the State. We suppose a dunning institution is a collection agency which sends to an impecunious citizen a circular reminding him that a liquor bill contracted in Podunk, L. I., is still unpaid, and that, unless he pays it to the agency, either p.d.q. or by installments, he may expect the agency not to be blind to his villainy, but to hold him up to public scorn.

UNCLE WALT.

The Poet Philosopher.
The grocer chased me up and down, in sunshine and in shade; he knew I always paid my bills, and yearned to get my trade. He hounded me and pestered me by every human means, until at last I sought his store to buy some boneless beans. He had some mouldy looking clerks, who loafed around the store, and combed their whiskers with their hands and watched the clock and swore. The floor was littered with jugs and boxes, crates and kegs, containing uninviting fruit, and prohibitory eggs. The floor itself had not been swept since Noah bossed the ark; the windows of the dreary joint with grime and dirt were dark. I took the grocer by the hand and led him to the door and said: "Some friend should push you down and pat you with his feet. A man who runs a grimy store that's full of grimy clerks some day will see the Sheriff come to close the whole blamed works. Go, turn the hose on all those clerks, and clean your dismal joint, and when you ask me for my trade I will not say 'Aroint!'"

SPECULATION ABOUT THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.
Almost anything may happen except the election of an old-time reactionary Democrat. That, seems impossible. The best representative of each great party—the masses of each party—as they are today are President Taft on one side and Gov. Wilson on the other side. That would be a pretty contest, a contest that would call forth such enthusiasm and endeavor as we have not had in a Presidential campaign for long time.

Mr. Taft and Mr. Bryan—Mr. Taft would win.
Mr. Taft and Mr. Harmon—Mr. Taft would win.
Mr. Taft and Mr. Wilson—That would be the most interesting possible contest.
Mr. La Follette and Mr. Bryan—Both parties would be split wide open and what would happen?

Mr. La Follette and Mr. Wilson—On account of the Republican split, Mr. Wilson would win.—[The World's Work.]

MME. MAETERLINCK'S TEN RULES FOR WIVES.

Mme. Maeterlinck has just explained to a curious world how she became a successful wife under the most difficult circumstances, says "M.A.P."

There are her ten commandments for wives:

1. A wife is the inseparable half of the only complete human unit, in which two small and imperfect individuals have become merged in a large and perfect One.
2. Each half of the wedded whole retains special functions; yours are to discern, to anticipate, to yield, to cheer, to soothe and to strengthen.
3. Never trust to hirelings the essentials of your husband's physical well-being; understand and frequently practice the art of selecting and preparing his food.
4. Be sure each day his garments are whole and clean and suited to the season.
5. Constitute yourself an infallible barometer whereby to forecast and render harmless those electrical disturbances peculiar to the married state.
6. Be to your husband's dark moods the subtle, unsuspected antidote; to his joyous mood the companion spirit of joy.
7. Save your caresses until you perceive that his dinner has been without a flaw; kisses to a hungry man are like froth to a parched tongue.
8. Your tongue for assent; for argument use only your eyes.
9. When your husband has an attack of dog, deprecate the art of dancing.
10. If you would convince your husband that you are a better actress than Bernhardt, a better dancer than Pavlova, prove to him that you are a better cook than M. Escoffier.

SETTING ASIDE THE COURTS.

[Portland, Oregonian.]

Theodore Roosevelt declares in the current Outlook that "Arizona should clearly, and as a matter of right and duty, be admitted to Statehood." If Arizona wants to recall its judges when and how it pleases, that is Arizona's own concern, in the opinion of Col. Roosevelt; it will get the kind of Judiciary it wants and it will be able to get rid of the same in its own good time, through the simple and conclusive process of invoking the majority rule. Besides, other States have the recall; so, if Arizona should consent to drop it out of its proposed scheme of State government, and should be received into the Union, and afterwards should consider and adopt the recall of judges, what is anybody going to do about it? If that is the sort of thing Arizona wants, Arizona wants that sort of thing, and that settles it.

Col. Roosevelt takes pains to declare that "personally I do not think that, under normal circumstances, it is advisable to have the principle of the popular recall applied to the judiciary." But—mark the but—"I much prefer," etc., etc. What the colonel had in mind when he said "but" was States like California, which are unable to elect good judges, and ought therefore, in his opinion, to exercise the same profound judgment in recalling bad judges. Mark what Col. Roosevelt says:

"If in any given State the system of an elective or an appointive judiciary without a recall has proved in actual practice to work badly (as it certainly proved to work badly in California), then practical reformers who are working for the betterment of popular conditions are quite right in trying to substitute for it some other system."

If in any State the judiciary yields to improper influence on the part of special interests, or if the judges, even, although honest men, show themselves so narrow-minded and so utterly out of sympathy with the industrial and social needs brought about by changed conditions that they seek to fetter the movement for progress and betterment, then the people are not to be excused if, in a servile spirit, they submit to such domination, and fail to take any measures necessary to secure their right to go forward along the path of economic and social justice and fair dealing. If our people are really fit for self-government, then they will insist upon governing themselves. In all matters affecting the nation as a whole the power of self-government should reside in the majority of the nation as a whole; and upon this doctrine no one has insisted more strongly than I have insisted, for in such case 'bona fide' rights become a meaningless phrase as it is translated 'into national right.'

It is not difficult to interpret what Col. Roosevelt says in this astonishing language. It is that the recall of the judiciary is correct and patriotic procedure. If the majority decides that way, Col. Roosevelt is personally against the judicial recall in cases where public sentiment is against it and for the judicial recall where public sentiment is for the majority. The recall of the judiciary is the duty, the solemn, sacred, sworn duty, of the courts to declare what is right and what is wrong. Under the judicial recall there is an appeal from the courts to the people. The people, then, undertake, through the judicial recall, to determine at the polls by a majority of one or more—right or wrong. Their fact that wrong is right or right is wrong is absolute, and may therefore make wrong right or right wrong.

HOW CHAMP CLARK SINNED AND REPENTED.

Clark's first Sunday saw him at the little church where worshipped the followers of Alexander Campbell, called the Disciples of Christ. Clark put in his letter from the Christian Church at Cincinnati, where he had been in the law school, and where he was in full fellowship. Within a few days a steamboat trip was arranged by the young men of the town; the old steamer War Eagle, towing the barge Mamie, brass band, lemonade stand and all, steamed slowly up the broad river, while the full June moon rose over the picturesque bluffs of Pike county, Illinois. The music, the perfect night, the odor of a thousand roses, the enthusiasm of youth—all else was forgotten. The young churchmen danced all the way up the river to the turning-point, and then danced all the way back to the landing at Louisville, at 2 o'clock in the morning.

The next Sunday he took his way to church, all unconscious of the gathering storm. Before the service began the young Kentucky was called before the bar of the church and expelled from its membership for dancing, in violation of the laws of the church. Clark, crestfallen, but not discouraged, walked out and cooled his brow in the shade of the long rows of maples on Georgia street. It was depressing, discouraging. But soon the air cleared; he walked resolutely back to the church, and in and took a seat on the last bench in the rear, observed by none. There he sat and heard a sermon on backsliding that seemed to be directed at him alone.

In the Christian Church it is the unfailing custom, at the close of the service, to offer an invitation to all repentant sinners to come forward and take a place on the front seat while the congregation sings a hymn. It is a goodly custom. The usual invitation was given, when up rose a tall blond and blue-eyed young man with a square jaw—the young Kentucky lawyer, who, according to the Riverside Press, had "settled in our midst." He stalked straight to that front bench and sat resolutely down, the only repentant sinner to make the good confession. The pastor was nonplussed; the presiding elder gasped; the deacons were astounded. The hands putting the rules and laws of the church was dug up and hastily consulted; all hands put their heads together, but there was only one thing to do, a repentant sinner could not be turned away, so Clark went back into the fold, and there abided till day.—[P. Harvey Middleton, in July Columbian.]

Wanted—A Shoe-horn.

Bathhouse partitions are not soundproof, and consequently a sweet female voice full of dismay was plainly heard at Atlantic City on a Sunday afternoon.

"Oh, Laura," cried the voice, evidently addressing her girl chum in the adjoining house. I have forgotten my shoe horn. Have you one that you can loan me?"

"What's the matter?" queried a deep bass voice a few yards away before Laura could reply, "can't you get your hobbie skirt on?" —[Philadelphia Telegraph.]

Commercial Concern—Makes Offer for Exchange of County's Voting Equipment—Wants "Boot."

The Douglas Booth Manufacturing Company yesterday proposed to equip the county with its canvas, collapsible voting booths, taking the old booths in exchange for a difference of $5500. The old equipment was rated as worth $10,000.

The Supervisors took the matter under advisement, after objection had been made by Nellis to incurring the expense. The booths have been on exhibition at intervals, just inside the main entrance to the Courthouse.

Miss Helen Angeline Stoughton, whose engagement to Roy Bradley Wheeler was announced yesterday at a pretentious tea party.

SOCIETY in fashionable Los Angeles and Pasadena as well as Brookline, Mass., the bride-elect's former home, will read with interest news of the betrothal of Miss Helen Angeline Stoughton and Roy Bradley Wheeler, which was made known yesterday afternoon at a tea party given by the bride-to-be's mother, Mrs. J. E. Stoughton, of No. 655 Magnolia avenue, Pasadena. Miss Stoughton, with her parents, has been a resident of Pasadena the last three years. She is an attractive young woman and has won her way into the hearts of a large circle of friends by her grace and charm of manner. She attended school in Paris and later finished at Miss Bennett's school in New York. She is a granddaughter of William Sumner Grandin, of one of the oldest and most prominent families in Cincinnati. On her father's side she is related to Gen. W. T. Sherman and also to Gen. Law Wallace. Mr. Wheeler is a son of Mrs. Robert J. Burdette of "Suncrest," Pasadena, and is well known in club and society circles as being a member of the Bachelor Club and also of the Los Angeles and Anahole Country Clubs. He is associated with the firm of Adams & Company, and is a Harvard graduate. The wedding will take place in the fall.

Miss Tomlin to Wed.
Another engagement of interest is that of Miss Hazel Tomlin, daughter of E. & Tomlin, to Burdette Williams of Milwaukee. Miss Tomlin is well known in local society.

Mrs. Macdonald Hostess.
Mrs. Hugh Livingston Macdonell of No. 2321 South Figueroa street charmingly entertained yesterday with a theater party at the Masonic hall by tea in the garden of her beautiful home. The afternoon was planned in honor of Miss Katherine Flint, daughter of former Senator and Mrs. Flint, and also for the Misses Katherine and Marjorie Ramsey, daughters of Mrs. William Ramsey. Twenty-four young people were entertained at the theater and later others dropped in for a merry chat over the tea-cups.

Mrs. Chaffee Leaves.
The departure of Mrs. Adna R. Chaffee for Ft. Russell will cause a lull in the world of fashion. During the visit of the medical met last week Mrs. Chaffee entertained with numerous parties. Her absence will be regretted by members of the younger set especially. Mrs. Chaffee will visit her son-in-law and daughter, Capt. and Mrs. George French Hamilton.

At Montecito.
Mrs. Godfrey Hotterhoff and Mrs. Burton E. Green will spend a month at Montecito. They will leave the early part of this month.

Have Returned.
Mrs. R. G. Vasey and Mrs. C. R. Baxter, Jr., of No. 1692 Church avenue have returned from a three weeks' visit in Santa Barbara.

Fourth at Home.
Another pleasant gathering on Independence Day was that at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Kutz, at No. 117 South State street. Notably so was the meeting with their guests, Mrs. Sadie McGuire and daughter, Patricia, from Chicago, the latter being their niece. Others who participated and were guests were Mr. and Mrs. James W. Kutz, Wesley Kutz, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Foley, Francis Foley, Wilbur Foley, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burton, the Misses Burton, Frank Bartlett, Mrs. William W. Kutz, Arthur E.

FRICITION BRINGS NEW ROAD HEADS.

Supervisors Name Members of Highway Commission.

"Solid Three" Twist Motion and Carry Point.

Retiring Chairman Praises
New Commission.

The expected happened yesterday, when the Board of Supervisors carried out its implied threat of four months ago and refused to reappoint the old County Highway Commission. In its place were appointed Thomas Bailey of Pasadena, W. A. Gillette of South Pasadena and D. K. Edwards of Los Angeles. This was done by a vote of 10-3. The retiring chairman, J. D. Calvert, G. H. Bixby, chairman of the commission, will remain in office until August 13, when he will be displaced by Bailey.

AN FOR LODER.
As a direct result of the appointment of yesterday, Chief Engineer Loder will be ousted, and F. H. Joyner, at present employed as maintenance engineer, will be given his place. This the "solid three" assured themselves of before the appointments were made. Loder has known the attitude of the board ever since the disagreement of last winter between that body and the commission, and he has been winding up his affairs here in preparation for the change.

The three Supervisors who voted affirmatively all say that there is nothing personal in their action in ousting the commission, or desiring the appointment of Joyner. They say they are desirous of securing harmony and of pushing the road-building projects of the county as fast as they can.

Fridham expressed his satisfaction with the men appointed. "We needed a change, in the interest of harmony," he said. "The new commission will be given absolutely free rein. They will organize, and the matter of retaining the present commission will be left to them entirely."

Supervisor Nellis takes another view of the situation. "I think the old commission should have been retained because they have had their experience and ought not to submit to the schooling of three green hands," he said. "It is the same with the chief engineer. Mr. Loder has done good work, and I don't see why we should break another man in."

Supervisor McCabe expressed a like view. "The new commission is competent and will work in harmony," he said. "The expense of the new commission is going out. The others will represent public sentiment and carry out what will be an advantage."

"Harmony and sympathy with the majority of the Supervisors, coupled with ability, will mark the appointments," said Supervisor Butler.

COMPLIMENTS SUCCESSORS.
Bixby had only good words for the new commission, when seen at his office yesterday. "They are able men," he said, "and I think they will carry out the work well. We are interested in that, as you may guess, after giving our time to it for years."

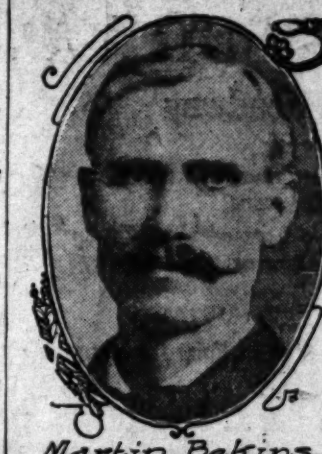

Of the three new appointments, Newman is a retired partner in the firm Newman & Edwards, was a member of the first Board of Public Works in Los Angeles, and has been much interested in the good roads movement. Early was formerly Mayor of Pasadena, was a member of the body pressing the original good roads movement, and strongly advocated the issue of $2,500,000 in bonds to build up the highways.

Gillette is a construction engineer of wide experience, who has been actively engaged in road-building in the East, South, Middle West and Pacific Coast. His father was a builder of roads in Washington and Idaho, and his brother, H. P. Gillette, is publisher of Engineering News-Record, as well as author of several works on the subject of road construction. The appointments some years ago built, with this brother, one of the first sections of road under the New York good roads law.

HOW FRICITION GREW.
The trouble between Supervisors and commission, resulting in the action of yesterday, started more than a year ago, when the advisory committee of the board was asked to investigate the work of the other body. The committee made an adverse report. The board then appointed an investigating committee, made up of engineers and citizens, whose report was more favorable. It had served, however, to show up thoroughly the lack of harmony between the two bodies.

Emperor William left Kiel for Norway on the imperial yacht Hohenzollern yesterday. The yacht was conveyed by the cruiser Kolberg and the Norwegian destroyer boat Visner. The emperor was accompanied only by civilians, among whom were Prof. Paul Gundersen, the Alpine explorer, and the marine painter, Bohrdt.

COUNCIL CONFIRMS MAYOR'S APPOINTMENTS.
Former Assistant City Attorney, Made Chairman of Important Commission, Declares Both People and Corporations Will Be Accorded Square Deal.

The Mayor yesterday appointed Lewis R. Works chairman of the Board of Public Utilities to succeed Meyer Lismer, and Martin Bekins, president of the Bekins Van & Storage Company, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of N. D. Darlington. The third seat on the board, which had been held by J. M. Hunter, will be held by J. M. Hunter.

The Mayor stated last night that he has not selected a man for Hunter's seat, although several good ones have been suggested. His appointments were confirmed by the Council.

Richmond Plant, a former member of the Council, who was obliged to give up his seat because he was not a citizen of the city, is an applicant for a place on the board. As a Councilman who had to be displaced, Plant cost the taxpayers many thousands of dollars.

Works is a lawyer and formerly assistant City Attorney. "I regard a member of the Board of Public Utilities," he said, "as being appointed to a position where he ought to maintain an impartial attitude, endeavoring to be fair, as far as he is able, both to the people and to the corporations."

He is required to hear the evidence on a question on both sides and decide fairly and impartially between the parties. "Under the law, the board sits just like a judge," he said. "There will be no closed door. But it is only fair to say this, also, that virtually being a court where a decision is handed down, there are times when it would not be judicial to give out findings in advance while the matter is in course of preparation, and it is to be hoped that this attitude will be fairly understood."

"I propose to do my full duty and stand ready to treat everybody alike. The latch string will hang out."

"Mr. Bekins is an old client of mine, and his selection as a working member is pleasing, as we will work nicely together," he said, "and his judgment highly."

Neither Works nor Bekins was sworn in yesterday. This probably will be done today when the new members no doubt will take possession of the office and become familiar with the working force and details.

Engineer Comstock is still in charge and is waiting to report to the new board with all the information he has in hand.

No appointment has been made by the Mayor to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Fire Commissioner Hawley. The name of former Councilman Wren is freely heard and favorably considered by the Mayor, but Wren is understood not to care for public office.

THEY'RE SEEING THE CITY.

The advance guard of teachers on their way to San Francisco to attend the National Education Association convention spent the first of a stay of three and one-half days in Los Angeles, yesterday. The special train carrying ninety-seven delegates and teachers from Columbus, O., and surrounding territory, arrived over the Santa Fe, Tuesday night. On their way here they stopped at the Grand Canyon and Riverdale, and Redlands. Most of them registered at the Lankershim, and yesterday started on the first of a three-day tour of the various centers of interest. They will leave tomorrow afternoon on the Southern Pacific for the Bay City. Dr. Edward M. Cleave, superintendent of the State School for the Blind at Columbus, was in charge of the party. For other special trains of delegates and teachers are due here the latter part of this week.

FOR CATHOLIC PICNIC.
A meeting of the committee in charge of arrangements for the annual Catholic picnic is to be held Saturday evening at Y.M.C. Hall, No. 217 South Hill street. It is expected that at that meeting the time and place of this year's big gathering will be determined. John R. Dwyer, president, last evening appointed the following members of the committee: Secretary, P. J. O'Donnell; treasurer, John J. Regan; executive committee, Francis G. Halley, Walter Goldsmith, Dr. J. S. Derrick, Leo Rosecrans, Martin F. Belkouski, J. P. Lawler, J. W. Carigan, Edward Tynan, Stephen Buhr, Theodore Bussemann, J. Nolan and T. J. McGonigle.

German Railroad Building.
There are about eighty German engineers employed in building one railroad line in China. It will extend from Tientsin, the port of Peking, down to Nanking, but only the northern part of the line will be built by German money and German skill.

This road crosses a plain where there is extremely scarce and gravel is quite as hard to find. So the Germans have built many brick kilns and with the bricks they make they not only provide for the masonry work expected on a railroad, but also use the bricks for ballast instead of gravel or broken stone. (Cleveland Leader.)

The Gasoline Grammar.
To what extent the automobile has invaded the preparatory school may be judged from the following occurrence: Teacher (to the beginners' class in Latin): Can any of you boys give the rules for accentuation of Latin words?

DRAWING

WHERE WE GET OFF.

BY J. ALEX. KLOAN.

WITH the late practically cleaned of the July 4, the pugilistic world has a rather tame summer season to look forward to. In New York nearly all of the clubs have closed up with the exception of the place being made by the Coney Island promoters, there is nothing in sight at all in Gotham.

With the calling off of the fight between Cyclone John Thompson and Chicago Knockout Brown at Gary, Ind., and the lethargic manner in which the promoters are acting in Milwaukee, there is nothing in view in the Middle West. A new club at Fond du Lac, Wis., wants to promote the Thompson-Brown bout, but as it is an expensive proposition to let it be beyond the caliber of the Badger village, the contest will probably be abandoned.

In California much depends on the condemns the promoter has in staging big bouts. The public on the coast wants the best there is in the fighting game and after the bout July 4 it will be harder than ever to please the fans. And then on the Pacific Coast conditions are much the same as elsewhere so far as getting too much of the good thing.

In all my amusement enterprises there is an off-season and with the exception of California, where the fight fans are numbered by the tens of thousands, it is customary to let the summer months go by without anything of importance happening to arouse the attention of the fighting world.

Dropped in the Grand Pacific Hotel in Chicago the other day and met a couple of the old-school of sport writers who had been to the bout July 4. The story was told of the great game as being a real prize fight.
Several years ago, to be exact, back in the late fall of '91.

Jim Corbett had just won the charismatically old John L. Sullivan and was being chased by several immense heavyweights who wanted to get a crack at the pompadour youth who had been recognized as the most persistent seeker of recognition.
Joe Goddard.

God was being touted as a coming champion. He was a big, strong fellow who had come to this country from Australia with a good record.
His real name was a mystery, but he had been in Corbett and he figured out that he was a heavyweight king who would have to come to confront a battle.

Corbett had been well billed and his arrival in the Windy City was like the home coming of a great general.
He was met by a crowd of thousands and he was put up at the Grand Pacific Hotel, so he and Billy Madden went there to await the arrival of the California hero.

No sooner had Corbett put on his appearance than hundreds collected around him yelling for a speech and found it pleasant enough both ways, and it is apt to be so at this season.

There is no place to lay under Clemente, however, and a northwest-er which is apt to come up at an hour's notice any time, will find a small boat easy picking upon that rock-bound, precipitous coast, greatly hampering the lives of any who may be on her; while the channel itself when rough is a job for a full-sized sea-going cruiser, and not a pleasant job at that.

The greater comfort and convenience of the smaller fishing launches will tempt many to risk it, however, especially in view of the relative comfort of the shore accommodations as compared with formerly, when a trip to Clemente meant rolling and tumbling about all night in Mosquito Harbor losing sleep and about severally else one had left after the perils of the passage. Shaver and Lefebvre had this experience, but both being very fit they slept well and were none the worse for this rolling Sunday night.

On of the Phillips boys landed a forty-two and one-half pounder, and later a thirty-two and one-half pounder on nine-nine tackle. The big fellows are very free as yet. Al Shade thinks the sport will improve from 1:04 on. If a yellowtail is hooked now he is apt to be a good one, twenty-eight to thirty pounds at least. They are not biting at the east and as yet.

Coming back, Shaver phased the running time of five and one-half hours, but he was in it and that was his claim to fame, although he does not claim speed for his record.
Leaving Mosquito Harbor Tuesday morning at 3 o'clock when the channel was at its calmest, he had a course for the East End of Catalina and ran back to Seal Rocks. Coming home, Catalina was left behind at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and the inner channel proved the worst part of the trip, it being very sloppy and nasty coming home in the trough of the sea.

Sunday morning one of the Phillips boys hung a big swordfish under the lee of Clemente, but was in too great a hurry, did not allow the fish to get the bait down so as to prick it in the throat, and the hook fastening in the horny jaws, broke under the strain of the creature's fran-cic gyrations.

The help is no worse around Clemente this year than last, apparently, and Shade states that conditions at Fish Hook Reef, the east end of the island, are at least no worse; that there are yellowtail in Dublin there, and as soon as the yellow-tail taking hold there will be gold-button fish a plenty for all who want them.

EASY COIN FOR JACK.
CHICAGO, July 5.—[By the A. P.] Jack Johnson, heavyweight champion, has signed articles to fight Patrick Belmont, a British lion in Dublin, according to a dispatch from London.

CRICKET FEUD IS THING OF PAST.

LOS ANGELES AND SANTA MONICA TO PLAY MATCHES.

W. Meggett, Champion Trundler, Has Been Elected Secretary of Local Club, Vice Hamden, Resigned—First Match to Be Played Next Sunday at Santa Monica.

W. Meggett, the newly elected secretary of the Los Angeles Cricket Club, has arranged to explain a formidable eleven to play Santa Monica next Sunday, on the polo grounds.
This is not a cup match, but a friendly game, to patch up the feud which has existed between these rival clubs for several months past. Wickets will be pitched at 1 o'clock.

Chas. Rasmussen, late secretary of the local club, has left California. By a provision of his contract, his place has been filled by "the boys," one of the most enthusiastic and popular cricketers in the southern part of this State.

Now that both teams have kissed and made up, several important features will be arranged in the near future. With such a true sportsman as Meggett to make dates, the locals and the champions will meet on every possible occasion.

In 1908 Meggett headed the bowling average for Los Angeles Cricket Club, with the fine record of 140 balls twenty-eight maidens, 233 runs, forty-two wickets at a cost of $12. In batting, his average was 10.00 out of $9.00 for fourteen innings. In one of the interleague matches he scored forty-two runs by himself.

J. F. W. Allan, secretary of the Santa Monica Cricket Club, has had a confab with secretary Meggett, with the result that a series of friendly games will be played between the two clubs. Meggett also is trying to involve the members of his club in play a series of five test matches for the Dudley trophy, as Santa Monica does not wish to retain possession of it forfeiture.

The team which Meggett will take down to Santa Monica on Sunday is a formidable one. It will include D. Bamford, ex-captain of the Los Angeles Cricket Club and a member of the all-Southern California eleven; S.
Hutchison, F. Williams, F. Bamford, J. H. Rowland, C. W. Packman, and several new players, who will be tried out.

CRICKET NOTES.

Following are the results of cricket matches played on July 4, and yesterday:

Toronto just managed to beat the University of Pennsylvania by three runs. The scores were 149 to 146.
At one time the Quakers had nine men out for only ninety-seven runs. Weldon, who was batting, hit a six, and out put a different aspect on the game.

The Golden Gate, played up 132 runs to 44 by the Barbarians and thus won easily by eighty-nine runs. Bird made forty-seven for the winners. The Barbarians could do nothing with the devices of Pe and Priest. The former took five wickets for twenty-three runs and the latter three for twenty-two.

Alameda beat San Francisco county by forty-three runs. The batting of both teams was poor. The former made sixty-five runs to the latter twenty-one scored by the county.

Seattle beat the Albions of British Columbia, by 130 runs. The scores were 184 to 54. McKillop for the winners made 101. Lawrence dismissed nine Albion batsmen for twenty-two runs.

Vancouver beat Victoria by seventy-one runs. The scores were 187 to 116.

Victoria beat Nanaimo, by seven wickets and thirty-four runs. Newbury of the latter team made fifty-one runs. For the winners Gillespie sixty-nine not out and Collison forty-five not out, were the heavy hitters for Victoria.

Frankford defeated Germantown by twenty-five runs after a close finish.
The scores in this Halifax cup match were 203 to 178. Evans made fifty-two for the winners.

Toronto beat Guelph by eleven runs.
The scores were 112 to 101. Lee for the winners, took five wickets for four runs. McDonald for Guelph, after a hard fought game, by twelve runs.
The scores were 62 to 50. Askey for the military took seven wickets for sixteen runs. The scores were 118 to 50.

The Navy beat Esquimaux by thirty-three runs. The scores were 118 to 85.

Saatch beat the Albions by sixty-seven runs. Stephenson for the latter team was the only batsman to reach double figures. Nicholson, the ty-three, was the top scorer for Saatch.

Santa Monica will be represented by the following players: P. J. Higgins, CHICAGO, July 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "I'm off for Alaska, it's too hot to stay here."

James J. Jeffries, vanquished champion heavyweight, made this announcement today.

No one dared ask the "Big Bear"
how the heat compared with Reno's weather a year and a day ago. Jeffries' announcement of his proposed hunting trip recalled the fact that a year ago today, following his with Jack Johnson, he went to ice on a hunting trip.

Jeffries laughs at the idea that he was neglected by the British during coronation week. The champion admitted that Johnson out quite a dash with him came colored motor car up and down F on the other side. "All that advertising purposes," said he,
"I don't have to advertise. I'm othe fight game for all time. I-had any use for it and you can drag me back into a ring with line."

Big Fellow in Chicago Says Heat Is Too Much for Him or Anybody Else.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
CHICAGO, July 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "I'm off for Alaska, it's too
hot to stay here."

James J. Jeffries, vanquished champion heavyweight, made this announcement today.

No one dared ask the "Big Bear"
how the heat compared with Reno's weather a year and a day ago. Jeffries' announcement of his proposed hunting trip recalled the fact that a
